

Dear Friends of art-a-site!,

We are very excited to finally start a monthly newsletter for all our patrons, friends and fans! We thank Kelsey Kleine (BGHS Alum and rising senior art major and Spanish minor at Ohio Northern University, Ada) for the marvelous job she has done bringing Becky into the 21st century in terms of technology and social media. KUDOS, KELSEY! We will also be making regular posts on our Facebook page – “like us” to get all the info firsthand. Our website (www.artasitegallery.weebly.com) is still under construction but we will let you know when it is current and up to date.

As we near the beginning of our fifth year in business (can you believe it?!), we are planning several changes to the physical configuration of our space as well as to our educational offerings and community services. Hope you will be able to join us for our Grand Re-Opening in July!

We are trying something different this summer: 3-day mini-art camp for kids that are scheduled mid-week so families will have a 4-day weekend on either end. As always, please don't be shy about offering feedback to this and any other new ideas we may come up with!

In closing, please accept our sincere appreciation for supporting this “art”-venture the past four years. As my silent partners (Mother and Dad) would agree, it has been our pleasure to present this gift of art to Bowling Green...we're so glad you enjoy it!

Becky (Ann & Phil Ricketts, too)

WHAT'S UP AND COMING AT art-a-site!

Once a month, downtown Bowling Green businesses and eateries will be offering an additional unique shopping and dining experience. Many merchants who normally close between 5 and 6 pm will remain open until 8 pm to make local shopping more convenient while special sales and promotions will make shopping downtown more economical. Eventually, outdoor dining, special product and artist demonstrations, make-it take-it workshops, music and unique street performances will add to the vibrant community atmosphere that is Bowling Green.
